Newborn Sessions

The best time to take pictures of newborns is within the first 5-21 days of life. During this time they sleep more soundly and curl up more easily into adorable poses. Please note – Newborn photography sessions should be scheduled while you are pregnant to ensure that we can photograph baby within the first three weeks after delivery. Newborn Sessions are held in my Studio on weekdays only and can typically last up to 3 hours. If you have something particular that you would like for your session you may bring it. Some clients bring something that may have meaning to them or their family, sports team jerseys, something from his/her nursery etc.
